100 High School Seniors Receive College Scholarships and Named 2004 Horatio Alger Pennsylvania Scholars

May 27, 2004 / Washington, D.C. - One hundred high school seniors from across Pennsylvania have been named as Horatio Alger Pennsylvania Scholars and will each receive a $2,500 college scholarship. These students provide an inspiring example of Pennsylvania's youth, having already demonstrated a drive to accomplish their goals, even in the face of adversity. The Horatio Alger Pennsylvania Scholars program is proud to recognize the hard work of these outstanding young people.

The 2004 Horatio Alger Pennsylvania Scholars have utilized initiative, perseverance and hard work to overcome the adversity they have faced in their lives. This accomplished group of young people has demonstrated success in academics, co-curricular activities and community service while taking on some of life's most difficult challenges. Each of these young people possess the aspirations and potential to make important contributions in Pennsylvania and around the world. The scholarship may be used to pursue a bachelor's degree at any accredited college or university within the United States.

The Horatio Alger Pennsylvania Scholars Program is funded through the generosity of the Neubauer Family Foundation and Joseph and Jeanette Neubauer. Mr. Neubauer is Executive Chairman of the Board of ARAMARK Corporation, based in Philadelphia, PA. In 1994 Mr. Neubauer was inducted into the Horatio Alger Association, an organization comprised of Americans who have overcome adversity and humble beginnings to achieve success. Joseph Neubauer currently serves as the Association's Vice President and on its Association's Board of Directors.

"All of these young people have shown their abilities to succeed in spite of adversities. Jeanette and I want them to have the opportunity to continue to excel and meet their educational goals. We are pleased to honor their accomplishments and help to make a college education more accessible and affordable," states Joseph Neubauer. Since 1984 the Horatio Alger Association's need based scholarship programs have helped hundreds of deserving students across the nation pursue their dreams of a post secondary education through the scholarships that recognize the circumstances and hardships of students as well as their achievements. Mr. Neubauer continues, "The experience of the Horatio Alger Association is unparalleled in working with students of limited financial means who want to obtain a college education."

The Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans is a nonprofit educational association. Through the generosity of its members, more than $5 million in need-based college scholarships are awarded annually to young people nationwide.
