Alger Association awards scholarships

August 1, 2010

The Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans announce that it has awarded scholarships to five deserving high school students in Delaware.

Each student will get $5,000. The students were selected for the Horatio Alger Delaware Scholarship because they persevered in overcoming adversity while also demonstrating excellence in academics, admirable character and community contributions, according to the association.

The Horatio Alger State Scholarship Programs range from $2,500 to $10,500 and are sponsored by Horatio Alger members and friends. The Delaware scholarships are supported by the Michele Rollins family.

The scholarship recipients are Sarah E. May, Cape Henlopen High School, Millsboro; Tuyet-Nhung T. Nguyen, Seaford High School, Georgetown; Lindsay J. Schulze, Milford High School, Harrington; Katricia L. Thompson, Hodgson Vocational Tech High School, Newark; Alexis N. Turner-Garris, Charter School of Wilmington.
