School Notes - Multiple Districts

July 27, 2010

The Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans awarded $5,000 college scholarships to 50 Missouri students who overcame adversity and proved academic excellence, positive character and community service. Five were from Jackson or Cass counties:

Angelica Hodgdon of William Chrisman High School, Annitra McDonald of Paseo Academy of Fine and Performing Arts, Misha Miller-Gilmore of Blue Springs High School, Heba Qureini of Lee's Summit High School and Leigh Stark of Cass-Midway High School.
